The Markets

New York Stock Exchange

New York, Jan. 22.—Today's session was extremely dull and complete lacking in outside interest. United States Steel was heavy and obscured by Industrial Alcohol, Corn Products and New York Central. Alcohol rose 2 points to 164, fell back to 160 and later recovered all its loss. Central Leather was heavy, declining 1½ to 108½ on rumors throwing doubt on the prospect of an increased dividend. American Woolen, International Nickel and half a score of war and semi-war issues were higher while coppers reflected the unparalleled damage for that metal. The closing was irregular. Bonds were steady.

Chicago Board of Trade

Chicago, Jan. 22.—Wheat today ran up to new high record price for the 1915 crop. The buying which caused this upward was based on an opinion from Liverpool that the maximum of the advance had not been reached.

After opening at $3.90 per bushel May at $1.25½ to $1.22 and June at $1.25½ to $1.25½, prices fluctuated rapidly over a range of more than a cent and then rose to well above yesterday's finish. Quotations closed unsettled, varying from $4.00 to $4.25 up with May at $1.32½ and July at $1.25½.

Cold, clear weather continued for sowing and shipping seed corn, opening prices which showed 5¢ to 15¢ a decline, were followed by a slight rally. The close was weak at $4.90 per bushel.

Our markets were actively firm. Higher quotations on hog feedstuffs.

LEGATION GUARDS NOT TO WEAR ARMS WHILE EUROPEAN WAR IS ON

(Associated Press Correspondence)
Peking.—Officers commanding the various legation guards have agreed to prohibit their men from wearing side arms when on duty. This agreement is very gratifying to the Chinese officials who have expressed some apprehension as to what would happen if members of the various belligerent guards clashed and were able to use firearms.

On several occasions small groups of soldiers from the legation guards of warring countries had engaged in street fights. They also had had skirmishes in moving picture shows and other places of amusement.

The encounters between soldiers of the belligerents have given rise to a movement on the part of the Chinese to have all the legation guards removed. This, however, has never been seriously considered by the countries having compounds in the legation quarter.

HOMELIKE EVENINGS GIVEN MARINES BY MISS MARGARET DOW

New York, Jan. 22.—Miss Margaret Dow, or the "dowager," as she is lovingly called by the members of the United States marine corps on duty, at the local navy yard, is giving an evening of "home life" to her "boys" every Wednesday at her old-fashioned mansion on Putnam avenue, Brooklyn.

Miss Dow is the leading spirit of the United States Marine Corps League, an organization formed to aid the enlisted men of that old branch of the service, and which has the support of President Wilson, Miss Margaret Wilson, Mrs. J. Finley Shepard, Secretary Daniels and Major General George Barnett of the marine corps.

"Our Wednesday evenings are simple affairs," said Miss Dow. "My friends drop in to help me make things 'homes' and comfortable for the boys, and they appreciate it, I know."

Meals and light refreshments also help to make the Wednesday nights 'at home' pleasant for the marines.
